

DISABILITY SUPPORT ADVISORY COMMITTEE (DSAC)

Terms of Reference

Accountability

The Disability Support Advisory Committee is constituted by section 35, part 3, of The New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000 (The Act).

The procedures of the Committee shall also comply with Schedule 4 of the Act.

The Committee is to further comply with the standing orders of the Southern DHB which may not be inconsistent with the Act.

Function and Scope

- 1) The statutory functions of DSAC are to give the Commissioner advice on:
 - a) The disability support needs of the resident population of the Southern DHB
 - b) Priorities for use of the disability support funding provided.
- 2) The aim of the Committee's advice will be to ensure that the following promote the inclusion and participation in society, and maximise the independence, of the people with disabilities within the Southern DHB's resident population:
 - a) the kinds of disability support services the Southern DHB has provided or funded or could provide or fund for those people;
 - b) all policies the Southern DHB has adopted or could adopt for those people.
- 3) The Committee's advice may not be inconsistent with the New Zealand Disability Strategy.

Responsibilities

The Committee is responsible for:

- 1) Providing advice on the overall performance of the disability support services delivered by or through the Southern DHB;
- 2) Providing advice on strategic issues related to the delivery of disability support services delivered by or through the Southern DHB;
- 3) Focusing on the disability support needs of the population and developing principles on which to determine priorities for using finite disability support funding;
- 4) Ensuring that the District Annual Plans (DAPs) of the Southern DHB demonstrate how people with disability will access health services and how the Southern DHB will ensure that the disability support services they fund or provide are co-ordinated with the services of other providers to meet the needs of people with disabilities;

- 5) Assessing the disability support services' performance against expectations set in the relevant accountability documents, documented standards and legislation;
- 6) Ensuring that recommendations for significant change or strategic issues have noted input from key stakeholders and consultation has occurred in accordance with statutory requirements and Ministry guidelines.

Membership

All members of the Committee are to be appointed by the Commissioner. The Commissioner will appoint the chairperson.

The Committee is to comprise of the Commissioner and Deputy Commissioners, supplemented with external appointees as required.

Membership will provide for Māori representation on the Committee. The Committee may obtain additional advice as and when required.

Where a person, who is not a Deputy Commissioner, is appointed to the Committee, the person must give the Commissioner a statement that discloses any present or future conflict of interest, or a statement that no such conflicts exist or are likely to exist in the future.

Conflicts of Interest

Where a potential conflict of interest exists with an agenda item, these are to be declared by members and staff. A register of interests shall form part of each Committee meeting agenda.

Quorum

The quorum of members of a committee is —

- (a) if the total number of members of the committee is an even number, half that number; but
- (b) if the total number of members of the committee is an odd number, a majority of the members.

Meetings

Up to eight meetings per year are to be held.

Review

The Terms of Reference for this Committee shall be reviewed as and when required.

Management Support

The Chief Executive Officer shall ensure adequate provision of management and administrative support to the Committee.
